MRS. JONAS TO SHOW

When the Sunset Chapter of the American Hibiscus Society holds its annual flower show at Pinellas Park Branch, 5001 Park Blvd. North, of the First Federal Savings & Loan Association of St. Petersburg, Ethel M. Jonas, a member of the Sunset Chapter, will be in charge of the Artistic Division of IKEBANA. Styles of several Japanese schools will be shown.

Mrs. Jonas is a founder and organizer of Ikebana International, St. Petersburg, Chapter #65, which was chartered by Tokyo, Japan in September 1962. She is a student of Idenobo and Koryu Schools, which are classical styles, and is Professor Fourth Grade at Sogetsu Schools, and instructor of Ichiyo School, which are modern styles.

Mrs. Jonas has traveled to Hawaii, Japan and Hong Kong and has had four Japanese Ikebana teachers and two American Ikebana teachers. The Sogetsu School awarded her the Flower Name of KO SHUN (meaning scarlet spring). She also is a Master Accredited Flower Show Judge of National Council State Garden Clubs, Inc., as of 1960, the first year such honors were awarded. She has taught flower arrangement for several years.

A special invitation is extended to everyone to visit the Sunset Chapter flower show in October. Mark your calendars now for October 19th.

HELP IN DIRECTIONS

A note of help in directions. On the ad (facing page) instruction (A) is a little confusing. From Interstate 4 take 9th street exit to second traffic light and turn right on 694, continue west on 694 which is also known in Pinellas Park as 74th Avenue and Park Blvd.
